Fall Season program specifics will be released in July. Assigned delivery dates are scheduled by region and our truck routes. Sign up early for the best selection. No minimum sales required to participate. Refer to program details for applicable delivery fees which are dependent upon the distance of your delivery location from our warehouse in South San Diego County and your group sales. Submit dates are firm to ensure product availability. Missing these dates may delay your delivery. This schedule is a guide for our season, but if you need to adjust these dates due to your schedule, please ask. We can typically accommodate minor adjustments.
